Lander, skip 12. Bryan—skip 10.

AN ERROR.

The Bulletin was slightly in error the other day in referring to the location of the proposed C. N. R. station as being between First and Third street. The agreement with the Hudson's Bay Company and the Canadian Northern people is that the station is to be located according to a plan already drawn and approved, which shows the station between First and Second streets. While it was impossible to get it further east than First street on account of the high prices asked for the properties on river lots six, eight and ten it is settled that it will not go further west than the block between First and Second street.

THE RAILWAY QUESTION

A few years ago when complaint was made as to the disadvantageous railway conditions in the west, the reply always was that these disadvantages were because of the natural conditions in a new country, and that they would be cured by increased settlement and production. That is to say that the railway company could only give poor accommodation at high rates because there was little traffic. It was often a matter of wonder to the settlers of that time that a company which was unable to do better for the country, the need of whose development was the cause of its existence, was able to buy or build a thousand miles or more of railway line in an adjoining country, which so far from contributing anything to aid heavily taxed the project for state and municipal purposes; could put steamship lines on the Pacific ocean and generally could do business anywhere and everywhere with a view to developing traffic except in the Northwest. At that time the Northwest was supposed to be a burden on the company; its land grants cost more to administer than the revenue they produced, and the company had no encouragement to put money into what appeared to be a "sink hole." That at least was the argument. Today the company's lands in the Northwest are worth many millions in cash; the company's resources are unequal to the handling of the traffic of the Northwest, there is no part of its vast system on land or sea which pays as well as that in the Northwest; the company has from reserved earnings from sale of stock and lands, untold millions available for any purpose which it may see fit. Recently it has purchased a whole fleet of Atlantic steamers, and reports are current that it intends buying or building a fast Atlantic fleet which shall be second to none on any sea. Now surely the Northwest must be enjoying all the benefits that were promised it when in process of time and by natural growth is coming to be a great and therefore deserve them! But today the wishes of the farmers of the Northwest, who depend upon the Canadian Pacific railway for transportation to market is routing or liable to not on their farms, because transportation is not being furnished. This was so last year; it is so this year. But how comes the announcement that not only has the company been unable to furnish transportation in the past, but does not intend to furnish transportation for the future. This announcement is publicly made that the company will cease handling wheat for a time in some of its rolling stock in the more profitable bringing in of settlers and supplies. Within the year the rates on incoming freight have been increased and for weeks past incoming freight has been tied up because of a dispute between the company and a hauler of its employees.

Under the circumstances there is not much to be said. The facts speak for themselves. If ever the C. P. R. company had a claim on Canada or on the Northwest for work done in aid of development, it has no such claim now. No longer, by any stretch of imagination, can that company be considered as anything but an enemy of, and its enterprises an incubus upon, these territories. We certainly need the Grand Trunk or some other railway system to relieve us from present conditions. Some years ago the railway question was a question of rates, but now it has become a question of the mere transportation of a gift irrespective of rates. If ever there was a time or an occasion when the desirability and feasibility of government ownership was clearly proven it is now. Why should any railway company be allowed to make the money out of the Northwest, that the C. P. R. has made, and still refuse to supply accommodation to the people of the Northwest? There is no parallel between the conditions of the International and on a railway system west of the Great Lakes. Those who institute such a comparison merely to go as a misstatement of the case.

The news of the death of Miss Marion Martin, Strathcona, on Saturday afternoon, was received with sincere regret. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 p.m. to the Strathcona cemetery.

DAIRYMEN, POULTRY AND SWINE BREEDERS ORGANIZATION

The Territorial department of agriculture has now completed the live stock and dairy organization work of the Territories. A meeting was called by the department of agriculture at Lacombe recently for the purpose of organizing the poultry and swine breeders and dairymen of the west. So much success has attended the work of the present live stock associations in the Territories, namely the Horse, Cattle and Sheep Breeders' Associations; that it was considered advisable to place the breeders of other classes of live stock in a similar position. Mr. P. Talbot, M. L. A., of Lacombe, occupied the chair and in calling the meeting to order expressed his regret over the delay of the north bound train, which necessitated cancelling the afternoon meeting. The speaker, who is vice-president of the Poultry Cattle Breeders' Association, stated that the work done by that organization had opened his eyes to the possibilities in the way of co-operation on the part of breeders. He predicted a bright and prosperous future for the new organizations, and then called upon Mr. C. W. Peterson, deputy commissioner of agriculture, who was present representing the Territorial government, to address the meeting.

Mr. Peterson regretted that so little time could be devoted to discussing the aims and objects of the present as well as the proposed live stock associations. The Poultry Cattle Breeders' Association organized an annual sale of purebred cattle at Calgary, which had proved a distinct boon to breeders. The Horse Breeders' Association had interested itself very actively in securing legislation badly needed in the interest of breeders, and the Sheep Breeders' Association had organized an annual ram sale which filled a distinct need in the sheep raising portions of the west. Excellent exhibitions had also been held annually, and the Sheep Association had recently started a record for the registration of purebred sheep. In the speaker's opinion, swine breeders and dairymen should have organized some ago. A prominent dealer in Calgary, informed him, that during November and December alone last year, he had imported over $200,000 worth of poultry products to Calgary. If such was the condition of affairs, undoubtedly a necessity existed for a poultry association that could devote its attention to promoting the welfare of breeders and to developing this important industry. Co-operative dairying was adopted in the Territories years ago and was the result of farmers' leading confidence in private and even corporate management of creameries. The situation became critical and the Dominion government stepped in and took over the administration of dairy affairs and, as was well known, to every one, this arrangement was looked upon as merely a temporary one. It behooved dairymen to see that if the Dominion government relinquished control, some other responsible body were ready to proceed with the work. Mr. Peterson strongly advocated the formation of a western swine record.

Dairymen's Association.
Upon the motion of Mr. Flewelling it was decided to form a Territorial Dairymen's Association with an annual membership fee of $1. With some unimportant alterations, the constitution and by-laws of the Sheep Breeders' Association were adopted. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, C. T. Daykin, Lacombe; 1st vice-president, H. A. McColm, Innisfail; 2nd vice-president, A. Trimble, Red Deer. Directors, J. C. Pope, Regina; Major McPherson, Bentley; Dr. Fiddler, Lacombe; E. Ryan, Ponoka; H. F. Flewelling, Lacombe. All presidents of local creamery associations in the Northwest Territories are also directors of the Dairymen's Association. The commissioner of agriculture to the Northwest Territories, the chief of the Dominion dairy division and the Territorial agriculturalists of creameries were made directors of the association.

Upon the motion of Mr. Daykin the following resolution was passed: "That this meeting wishes to express its approval of the principle of co-operative management of creameries under government control."

"PICCADILLY—THE BEST"

MEN'S CLOTHING

Men's Suits, some new ones. Just about now you'll be glad to see some distinctly new goods, fresh ideas in the way of fabrics—large plaids, broken checks, narrow stripes in brown and gray effects—in fancy chevrons. The man who wants something "a little different" will appreciate the present showing of

"PICCADILLY—THE BEST"

PICCADILLY CLOTHING

There is a difference in clothing as in men. There are no better clothes made than those we are showing, but there are higher prices. A hot iron and a ton weight can press out a poorly made suit so that it looks very fine in a window. But only good, careful tailoring and all-wool cloth can make a suit hold its shape and look well for months and months. No need to argue with yourself, even though you have a good suit or overcoat. Will not another be welcome, if it's but to relieve a monotonous sameness? Many of these suits are of medium weight, and you could not find better for spring service. They are all identified by the "PICCADILLY" label. That makes them all the more desirable.

A good address goes a long way in aiding a man to forge to the front. We materially assist in giving you a presentable appearance by furnishing fashionable cut attire at prices below tailor made. Elegant patterns, careful workmanship. No clothing fits like ours.

BOYS' CLOTHING

CLOTHING THAT DEFIES JUVENILE GYMNASTICS

When you know how near useless it is to admonish youngsters not to soil their clothes. The only remedy is to get good clothes, but don't pay too much for them. Clothing is cheaper for a healthy boy than doctors' bills for a sick one. We plead for the boyish boy.

RAIN PROOF OVERCOATS

Cravenetted fabrics go through a process that goes to the foundation of the clothes—the very fibres that make the wool that makes the yarn are made non-absorbent. No earmarks of waterproof, no odor—no stiffness—is porous to air. The power of "cravenette" is in disguise until attacked by rain.

A draft constitution and by-laws, with slight modifications and alterations were adopted on the motion of Mr. Goudry. The following officers were elected: President, Dr. Harrington, Lacombe; 1st vice-president, W. E. Smith, Gillingham; 2nd vice-president, C. Gallagher, Edmonton; Directors, A. B. Foster, Monticourt; T. Russell, Lacombe; W. F. Flaveling, Lacombe; Fred. Batchelor, Lacombe; J. C. Pope, Regina; C. W. Peterson was elected secretary-treasurer.

The following resolution moved by Mr. Milner, seconded by Mr. Reddick, was unanimously passed: "That, the meeting desires to place on record its hearty appreciation of the valuable assistance given by the Dominion government to the Territorial Live Stock Associations and of the valuable work done by Mr. F. W. Hodson, Dominion Live Stock Commissioner, in the interest of live stock development in the West, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Hon. Sidney Fisher, minister of agriculture, and to Mr. F. W. Hodson, Dominion Live Stock Commissioner, Ottawa."

On the motion of Dr. Harrington, it was decided to establish a herd book for the registration of purebred swine to be known as "The Western Canadian Purebred Swine Record," and that the said record be established and administered on the same basis as the Western Canadian Sheep record.

Poultry.

The Territorial Poultry Association was formed on the motion of Dr. C. Goudry, seconded by W. Crowe. Practically the same constitution and by-laws as adopted by the Swine Breeders' Association were, with the necessary changes, pressed into service for the poultry men.

The election of officers resulted: President, John A. Turner, Calgary; 1st vice-president, P. Twibell, M. L. A. Lacombe; 2nd vice-president, R. L. Holmes, Bentley; Directors, W. E. Tees, Lacombe; W. Claxton, Calgary; O. Palmer, Lacombe; Frank Taylor, Lamerton, and T. Stewart, Lacombe. The commissioner of agriculture for the Territories and the Dominion Live Stock Commissioner, were made ex-officio members of the committee.

At a joint meeting of directors after the general meeting had been completed, C. W. Peterson was elected secretary and managing director.

Joint Meeting.

After the necessary organization work had been completed, a joint meeting was held of the newly elected directors of the various formed associations for the purpose of discussing the details of the work that was to be undertaken. Several speakers throughly advocated the holding of a fat stock show at some convenient point in the Territories. After considerable discussion the following resolution, moved by Mr. Reddick and seconded by Mr. Frank Taylor, was unanimously carried: "That in the opinion of this meeting it is desirable that steps should be taken towards the organization of a fat stock show to be held annually at some convenient point in the Territories, and that the secretary be requested to call a joint meeting of the directors of the various live stock associations during convention and sales week at Calgary in May next, for the purpose of discussing details, and, if considered feasible, to carry the project into effect, and that the secretary be furthermore instructed to approach the Territorial and Dominion governments with a view to ascertaining what assistance, if any, such a venture would receive."—Omn.

Mrs. Robt. Houston entertained the members of her Sabbath school class, to a taffy party on Tuesday evening. A most enjoyable time was spent.

Quite a number from our settlement attended the box social at Josephburg on Friday evening.

A number of sales of land are reported in this neighborhood. There is a boom in real estate just now.

Wm. Osbaldeston and Mr. Harvey Lawrence were out seeking homesteads in the territory north of Edmonton, last week. Those who have not homesteaded already would do well to avail themselves of the privilege as land in a few years will be very valuable.

Baloh Smith has returned from the hospital no better of his sojourn there.

Bridge foreman, W. G. Alton, received instructions from headquarters to resume operations again. His starts for Vegreville next week with the pile driver and a gang of workmen and will endeavor to push the work forward rapidly, before the break up in the spring.

CORNICATION

We notice the Russian and Galician farmers living east of here, have solved the grain transportation problem at present, by feeding largely to stock and making them walk out to Edmonton where there is always a good market. They are on the right track to make farming pay, and likewise keep up the fertility of their farms. Those who adopt this system will lose no sleep over a grain blockade. Many of our English speaking population would do well to take a leaf out of their book and keep it pasted in their hats. This is the sure key to success in farming.

Farmers would do well to insure their crops early and take no more chances of hail not coming this season. Those who have crops can pay 10 cents per acre. And those who should happen to get haled the amount paid will always help to carry them over till next season. This is one of the best laws ever placed by a legislature on the statute books for farmers and ought to be appreciated.

If you want to make money raising hogs, harness the wind. Buy a corncrib at once, and do all your own chopping of grain at home, pump your water, eat your wood and also your fodder, make a large hopper, fill it up with grain, oil up, turn your wheel in to the wind, and away it goes, and when it stops nobody knows. Sow enough oats, barley or wheat, or seed down to bromo grass, according to the number of hogs kept to have plenty of pasture. Let it grow a few inches high before turning them in, and you will be surprised that you never tried this plan before. Let them have plenty of fresh water and a good shade to sleep in. Feed them some coal regularly. You will be surprised how much they will eat. Growing hogs like a ration of corn as regular as they do of grain. There is no substance in its natural state that a hog likes which would be harmful if free access is given at all times or at frequent intervals.

Fodder seems to be scarce around here this spring than usual on account of so many farmers burning their straw stacks. Why farmers should burn their straw stacks every fall is a conundrum. There is always plenty of room on the farm, to stack straw without putting it in the centre of the field. Straw well stacked will keep good for years and will always remain in handy in case of getting haled.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wall arrived home last week from Ontario after an extended visit to their old home.

The trustees of Coronation school district have gone to work in an energetic manner and will soon have their new school completed.

EDMONTON EXHIBITION

The first meeting of the re-elected directors of the Edmonton Industrial Exhibition Association was held in the council chamber Saturday afternoon, March 21st. The first business taken up was the election of this year's board of officers. The following were elected: Donald Ross, president; Thos. Bellamy, vice-president; F. F. Tims, secretary-treasurer, (re-elected). The principal business of the meeting was the appointing of committees to take charge of the various departments of the exhibition. It was unanimously decided to give prizes to the amount of $10,000 to be distributed as follows: Attractions, $2,000; horse racing, $3,500; other prizes, stock, farm exhibits, etc., $2,500. The question of building a permanent refreshment booth was brought up and after discussion it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the building committee with power to act. The secretary was instructed to notify the town council to know the horse stalls, to place them conveniently, and to close up the approaches to the grounds through their property.

PIONEERS

Now that settlers are pouring into the Edmonton district in hundreds and thousands by railway, there is a universal complaint against the tourist car accommodation in travelling here, and a still louder and more unanimous complaint against the difficulties of the roads in reaching a homestead from the railway. It may be interesting to recall the beginning of that immigration twenty years ago and the circumstances which surrounded it. The way had to be made easier or the people would not have come in such numbers, but when a comparison is made between the way of twenty years ago and that of to-day, it does appear that a good deal of present day complaints are at least altogether creditable to the hardship and determination of the immigrants. The Bulletin has been handed a copy of the Farmer's Advocate of April, 1882, in which is shown a sketch of the Henderson family, immigrants from Chilliwhack, B. C. to Edmonton. The scene is in the Jasper Pass through the Rocky Mountains and is most striking. It is taken from a sketch made by Miss Henderson now Mrs. Stewart, who was one of the party. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and children and their son-in-law, Mr. T. Stewart, left Chilliwhack in the spring of 1880 and travelled by pack train over the present railway route to Kamloops, and thence over the old Mackenzie survey by the Jasper Pass to Edmonton, arriving here on October 21st. The distance travelled was about a thousand miles. From Kamloops to Edmonton there was only a pack trail which had never been much used. Several of the children of the family were small and were carried in saddle bags. 1880 was an unfavorable year at Edmonton, and when Mr. and Mrs. Henderson arrived after their thousand mile trip they found the country covered with snow, and some of the grain uncut, having been damaged by frost. It was a cold welcome after such a long trip, but Mr. and Mrs. Henderson were not discouraged, and in the years that have since elapsed have demonstrated the capabilities of the country, and its possibilities for success, to a very satisfactory degree. At the time of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson's arrival, Winnipeg was the nearest railroad point to Edmonton and it was a thousand miles away. The changes of twenty years, although not as quick as was hoped for in the beginning, have still been very great. How great the contrast between the means of reaching here then and now, shows most plainly. Then the arrival of a single family was an event. Now the arrival of a hundred a day passes unnoticed.
